

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

Tell your doctor if you have been hospitalized in another facility or country.

➡ Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

Tell your doctor if you have been hospitalized in another facility or country.

L Take antibiotics only as prescribed by your doctor.

Herequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

💂 Take antibiotics only as prescribed by your doctor.

ill Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

L Take antibiotics only as prescribed by your doctor.

Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

Take antibiotics only as prescribed by your doctor.

Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

Take antibiotics only as prescribed by your doctor.

Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

L Take antibiotics only as prescribed by your doctor.

Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

Tell your doctor if you have been hospitalized in another facility or country.

💂 Take antibiotics only as prescribed by your doctor.

Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm

Whenever you need healthcare, even while at home, tell your caregivers that you have a carbapenemase-producing organism.

You should also:

Take antibiotics only as prescribed by your doctor.

Frequently wash your hands with warm water and soap, and insist others around you do the same.

For more information about CPOs, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website at:

http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/acd/Diseases/CPO.htm